

CHAIR'S REPORT

In the 4 years since I joined the Board, I have watched as we have transformed and stabilized the Society. We have “established our groove,” in part in the last few years due to the wonderful work of Nancy Ouimet, who over her tenure has risen to take more and more responsibility and greater management of the Society.

This past year, our ongoing successes gave the Board cause to re-consider the entire management framework of the Society. In 2011, the Board moved to what is referred to as an “Administrative Board” model of governance, where Board members take responsibility and authority for the majority of the actions of the Society. Based on our successes since then, in the 2016-17 Fiscal Year the Board questioned whether that still remained an appropriate model.

Starting in mid-2016 and continuing through to early 2017, several of the Board’s various subcommittees looked at our structures and processes, and concluded the time was right for a change of Society governance. Initially independently, and subsequently with the support from a Facilitator generously funded for us by the Calgary Foundation, the recommendation was made to switch to a “Policy Board with Subcommittee” model of governance, coincident with the end of our 2016-17 Fiscal Year. What this does is move the Board away from hands-on management, though retaining some specific subcommittees for specific issues.

One of the results of this transition was to offer Nancy the role of Executive Director of the Society, a role that not only is she highly qualified for, but that she accepted with her typical enthusiasm and energy. As Executive Director, she takes a greater responsibility for the day-to-day operations of our Society.

As we move into 2017-18, we can look back at our Business Plans from previous years and be proud of what we accomplished. Moving forward, the Board will increasingly step back from that day-to-day operation and seek to focus instead on Policies and Procedures that continue to assist our new Executive Director in doing her job, facilitate our members and volunteers to have fantastic experiences with us, tightly align ourselves with Alberta Parks, and deliver awesome value to the donors who make our operations possible.

On behalf of the Board, I say “Thank You” to Nancy, our donors, our volunteers, our Partners at Alberta Parks and elsewhere. We look forward to what lies ahead.

- Derek Ryder, Chair

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S REPORT

The Friends of Kananaskis Country (“The Friends”) are about working together to build trail culture - we develop opportunities and programs for individuals to experience Kananaskis Country through engagement and sharing. In partnership with Alberta Parks we engage in the stewardship of Kananaskis for current and future generations.

We set our focus in 2016-2017 towards building a stronger Trail Stewardship program. As you will see within this report, The Friends made strides towards reaching this goal by offering numerous volunteer opportunities, launched the Canmore Trail Alliance, and identified new initiatives that diversify how volunteers can engage and help steward Kananaskis.

Community engagement is a priority for the organization. We take pride in offering unique volunteer opportunities and are always astounded by your time, commitment, and passion for giving back to Kananaskis.

Together, we have helped build, maintain, and monitor Kananaskis trails...not to mention enjoy them. A resounding thank you goes out to everyone who is a ‘Friend of the Friends’. We have built a big family of volunteers and supporters – and you all make working for this organization a pleasure.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

2016 was The Friends of Kananaskis Country 20th Anniversary. Twenty years ago, The Friends was formed as a cooperating association with the Alberta Environment and Parks (AEP) to enable public participation within Kananaskis. At it's core, The Friends has a successful track record of doing exactly that – offering public participation.

It's our pleasure to share some of our highlights which are a blend of our efforts to enhance Kananaskis trails and experience, build trail stewardship and public participation, and the ways we bridge community engagement with Alberta Parks' need for additional volunteer resources.

Trail Care: With your help, we assisted Alberta Parks in rebuilding the 2013 flood damaged trails. It's been an incredible amount of work, and although several of your favourite trails were washed away, the new rebuilt trails are sustainably built, and offer different beautiful sceneries.

Chester Sawmill Winter Trail Enhancement Plan: All the trails proposed in the plan were approved by Alberta Parks. 12.5km of new trails will be included into this trail system by winter 2017.

Canmore Trail Alliance: We hosted 30 trail events, engaged 88 volunteers with 162 turnouts and over 645 volunteer hours. Trail night was every Thursday from 6-9pm with occasional weekend sessions.

Speaker Series: A mix of adventure, Alberta Parks operations, and science. These highly engaging presenters made this series fun and interesting: Alpinist Barry Blanchard, Conservation Officer Donna Schley, and Trout Unlimited Lesley Peterson.

New Initiatives: We developed three new initiatives to offer our members; Trail Inventory, Visitation Monitoring, and Trail Monitoring. All three projects assist AEP with data collection that support trail and recreation management.

Great Kananaskis Flood Book: Written by Gillean Daffern and Chair Derek Ryder - released in July 2016. The book captures the essence of the 2013 flood event sharing stories about people involved.

GIVING BACK

"I have been volunteering with the Friends for many years now and in the recent past I have volunteered as a Crew Leader. During this time I have learned so much about building lasting trails from Jeff Eamon, Nick Dotchin, Don Cockerton and Matt Hadley. As a Crew Leader, I get to pass on this knowledge to others, which is why I keep coming back. I also genuinely enjoy the outings...I call it hiking with benefits"
